Homestead II. Community-driven work where groups or organizations tend to one of the 18 plots where plants are grown and harvested during the exhibition. Ceramic “mills” are the base for this hydroponic garden. The community works together to manage the hydroponic garden or homestead that also emits sound.